

Curriculum Vitae

|                |                             |
|----------------|-----------------------------|
| Name           | Friederike Fischer          |
| Place of birth | Berlin                      |
| Nationality    | German                      |
| Address        | Schönwalde-GlienGermany |

Education

|                   |                                                      |
|-------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| 06/2017           | Lise-Meitner-Gymnasium Falkensee: Abitur, grade: 1.3 |
| 10/2017 - 10/2020 | Johannisstift Diakonie School of Health and Nursing  |
| 10/2020           | Qualified Registered Nurse, grade: 1.6               |
| Since 04/2021     | Medical studies at Medical School Berlin             |
| 03/2023           | First Section of the Medical Examination, grade: 2.5 |

Practical Experience

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 07/2017           | Career orientation internship, central OR, Vivantes Hospital Spandau                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10/2017 - 10/2020 | Clinical placements during nursing training across all major clinical departments, as well as in hospice care and psychiatry <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Specialist placement: central OR, Protestant Waldkrankenhaus Spandau</li><li>Trauma Surgery, Martin Luther Hospital</li></ul> |
| Since 11/2020     | Employed as a Registered Nurse at Protestant Waldkrankenhaus Spandau, Internal Medicine with integrated monitoring unit (including a COVID-19 ward from 2020)                                                                                                                                    |
| 09/2021           | Clinical seminars at Helios Hospital Berlin-Buch, with observerships in Neurosurgery, Nephrology and Rehabilitation                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 09/2022           | Career exploration observership at a plastic surgery practice                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Since 04/2023     | Second stage of medical studies (clinical), including bedside teaching                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 09/2023           | Clinical elective: Plastic, Hand and Microsurgery, Waldkrankenhaus Spandau                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 03/2023           | Clinical elective: General Medicine, Kirchner & Meseck GP Practice, Schönwalde                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

Additional Qualifications

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Driving licence | Class B (since 2017)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Languages       | English, fluent <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Advanced English classes (grades 7-10)</li><li>Bilingual Geography classes (grades 7-12)</li></ul> Latin, very good command <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Latinum qualification, grade 1, 2015</li></ul> |

Schönwalde, 23 March 2024
Friederike Fischer