

SISTER DEVOTHA MKABOMBEBEKI SALVATORY

Curriculum vitae

Person information

Name: Devotha Mkabombeki Salvatory
Sex: female
Marital status: single
Language used: English and Kiswahili
Nationality: Tanzania
Address: Mwanza, Tanzania

Professional summary

Dedicated and compassionate Nurse -midwifery with experience in clinical area, providing maternal and new born care. Skilled in maternal, intrapartum, and postnatal services. Currently pursuing a bachelor of nursing in nursing education at Bugando University to advance knowledge and skill in nursing education, and also am active member of St Therese Health Network in Tanzania.

Education background

2024 – present

Bachelor of nursing in nursing education at Bugando University

2020-2023

Diploma in Nursing and midwifery

2023-2024

I was volunteering at sengerema hospital as nursing and midwifery

2018-2020

Advanced Certificate of secondary education at st joseph cathedral high school

2014-2015

Certificate of education at holy family secondary school

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2023-2024

Nursing and midwifery at sengerema hospital Mwanza Region

- Providing maternal, intrapartum and postnatal care

- Assisted in emergency obstetric care
- Education and counselling patients on reproductive health
- Documented patient care and maintained accurate records.

Key skill

- Maternal and newborn care
- Emergency obstetric care
- Health education and counselling
- Communication and team work
- Report writing and documentation

Hobbies

I like singing
Reading books
drawing

Language

- Kiswahili Fluent
- English -Good

References

Sister Sarah Deogratias (medical doctor, internal medicine, member of hospital partnership of the GIZ (Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit, Germany), Email: kahumbyasarah@gmail.com, phone: +255-752810463

Mr Damian Lutenya, phone: +255-764382759

Prof. Dr. Björn Dirk Krapohl, Medizinische Universität Lausitz – Carl Thiem, Cottbus, Germany, Email: b.krapohl@mul-ct.de, phone: +49-355-463063

DECLARATION

I Devotha Mkabombeki Salvatory to the best of my knowledge, I declare that everything written in this curriculum vitae is true and I can make an account of any content contained here. Thank you!